

Environmental Policy

Alpha Marketing UK are a company with vast experience in the office furniture industry. The company recognises, and is committed to, the highest possible quality of services, whilst reducing environmental impacts associated with the provision of its services.

We recognise that our activities may have negative environmental impacts if not managed correctly, therefore it is our responsibility to manage these impacts through effective control measures. Protecting our shared environment is of fundamental importance to Alpha Marketing UK as it is to our employees, customers and other stakeholders.

To support this common goal, we will:

- Conduct our activities in an environmentally responsible manner and in compliance with all applicable legal requirements, company policy and standards related to our environmental aspects
- Continually improve the environmental performance of our activities and processes by setting and reviewing objectives and targets related to significant environmental risks and putting into effect programmes to reduce those risks.
- Prevent negative environmental impacts through a system of operational controls that include communication, written instructions and appropriate training. This is to include emergency response plans that address relevant environmental hazards
- Promote environmental awareness and make this policy available to all staff, contractors and all interested stakeholders.
- Reduce, reuse and recycle waste as far as reasonably practicable
- To take into consideration the life cycle of the services provided by us and how they impact the environment and how we control and influence their significance.
- To fully understand the business risk of poorly controlling each environmental impact and its associated ramifications.
- To identify opportunities based on the findings of the scoring of the Environmental Aspect Register held by and remediating as soon as possible in the aim of continually improving environmental performance.
- To, as far as reasonably practicable ensure that Alpha Marketing UK are not inadvertently impacting the environment in a negative manner for the operations of sub-contractors or suppliers.

It is part of the companies training programme that this policy is understood, implemented and maintained at all levels in the organisation. This policy statement will be reviewed on a regular basis, at least annually to confirm its continuing suitability in assisting with the achievement of the company's objectives.
